

BUDDHISM KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

Overview

Buddhism is one of the world's major religions. It is the world's 4th largest religion, with about 520 million followers.

Buddhists are the people who follow Buddhism. They follow the teachings of a man named Siddhartha Gautama, who became known as the Buddha.

The religion began when Gautama, a prince who had lived a life of luxury, realised that there was suffering in the world, and committed himself to understanding why.

This happened in India around 2,500 years ago.

The holy book in Buddhism is called Tipitaka. Buddhist Temples are buildings designed for Buddhist worship.

Buddhist Beliefs

Siddhartha Gautama's Story

-Siddhartha was a rich prince of an area north of India. His mother and father treated him well, and protected him from the suffering in the world.

- As a young man, Siddhartha left the palace for the first time, and was upset by the things that he saw: old age, sickness and death. He decided to leave his comfortable life to see if he could find an answer to the suffering.
- After many years of trying, he sat under a tree (the Bodhi tree) by a full moon and started meditating. In doing this he became Enlightened – he saw the meaning in all things. He was then known as the Buddha.

The Four Noble Truths

-The Buddhist teachings are known as Dharma. They include the Four Noble Truths and the Eightfold-Path. Buddhism's Noble Truths are:

1. Life always involves suffering (dukkha).
2. Suffering happens because people are greedy and never satisfied with what they have.
3. Greed and selfishness can be overcome.
4. The way to overcome them is to follow the Eightfold Path.

The Eightfold Path

- Siddhartha created a way of life which ensured that his basic needs were covered, but didn't require any extra comforts. Buddhists try to live following the Eightfold Path:

1. Right viewpoint
2. Right values/ thought
3. Right speech
4. Right actions
5. Right livelihood
6. Right effort
7. Right concentration
8. Right mindfulness
