

Dear Doctor,

I am writing to you to recommend you land the Tardis in Athens. Please read on to the end to see why you should land in this great city.

I would recommend you land the tardis in Athens as they are more peaceful than the Spartans, who would expect you to have a sword and go hunt the dinner.

The people of Athens would be able to help you with any new mysteries as they are intelligent people- they can read, do poetry and write. However, if you decide to choose Athens, you would not be allowed to vote.

If you decide to land in Athens, you will be able to sell Doctor Who annuals as they have a market by the sea.

If you are a bit stressed or bored, you could go to the sea shore to relax and build a sandcastle. (or maybe not.)

I hope you do decide to visit Athens, because it is a wonderful place.

Your sincerely,
Evie
