

ARTIST OF THE TERM

Eric Carle was born on June 25, 1929, in Syracuse, New York. His parents were originally from Germany. They moved back to Germany with Eric when he was 6 years old. Eric began drawing at an early age. As a young man, he went to a respected art school in Stuttgart, Germany.

The American author and illustrator Eric Carle was known for his picture books for young children. His illustrations are famous for their brilliant colours and simple designs. He illustrated more than 70 books, many of which he also wrote. One of his best-known books is The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

Eric Carle's art is distinctive and instantly recognizable. His artwork is created in collage technique, using hand-painted papers, which he cuts and layers to form bright and cheerful images.

National story telling week is
1st - 9th
February

This term's challenge: inspired by Eric Carle.

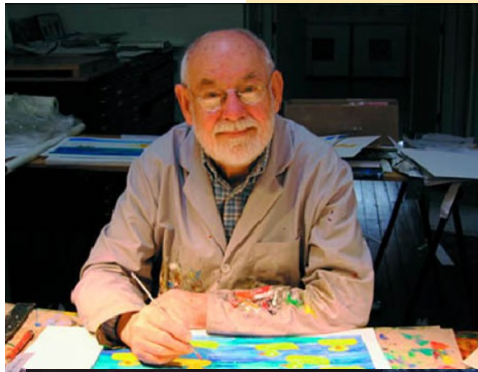

Create your own piece of art!

You need to return your art work to school by 28th February

Prizes for ks1 and ks2 awarded during celebration assembly.

Winning work will be framed and displayed within school.

ARTIST OF THE TERM

Eric Carle was born on June 25, 1929, in Syracuse, New York. His parents were originally from Germany. They moved back to Germany with Eric when he was 6 years old. Eric began drawing at an early age. As a young man, he went to a respected art school in Stuttgart, Germany.

The American author and illustrator Eric Carle was known for his picture books for young children. His illustrations are famous for their brilliant colours and simple designs. He illustrated more than 70 books, many of which he also wrote. One of his best-known books is The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

Eric Carle's art is distinctive and instantly recognizable. His artwork is created in collage technique, using hand-painted papers, which he cuts and layers to form bright and cheerful images.

National story telling week is
1st -9th
February

This terms challenge: inspired by Eric Carle.
Create your own piece of art!
You need to return your art work to school by 28th February
Prizes for ks1 and ks2 awarded during celebration assembly.
Winning work will be framed and displayed within school.

ARTIST OF THE TERM

Eric Carle was born on June 25, 1929, in Syracuse, New York. His parents were originally from Germany. They moved back to Germany with Eric when he was 6 years old. Eric began drawing at an early age. As a young man, he went to a respected art school in Stuttgart, Germany.

The American author and illustrator Eric Carle was known for his picture books for young children. His illustrations are famous for their brilliant colours and simple designs. He illustrated more than 70 books, many of which he also wrote. One of his best-known books is The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

Eric Carle's art is distinctive and instantly recognizable. His artwork is created in collage technique, using hand-painted papers, which he cuts and layers to form bright and cheerful images.

National story
telling week is
1st -9th
February

This terms challenge: inspired by Eric Carle.

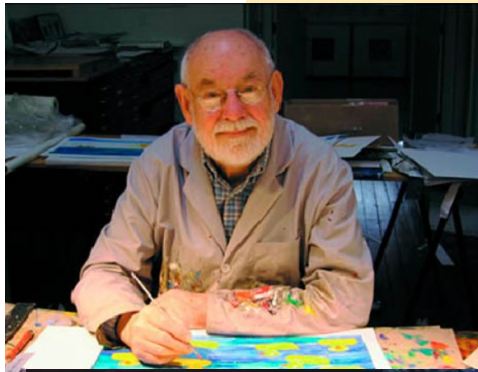

Create your own piece of art!

You need to return your art work to school by 28th February

Prizes for ks1 and ks2 awarded during celebration assembly.

Winning work will be framed and displayed within school.

ARTIST OF THE TERM

Eric Carle was born on June 25, 1929, in Syracuse, New York. His parents were originally from Germany. They moved back to Germany with Eric when he was 6 years old. Eric began drawing at an early age. As a young man, he went to a respected art school in Stuttgart, Germany.

Eric Carle's art is distinctive and instantly recognizable. His artwork is created in collage technique, using hand-painted papers, which he cuts and layers to form bright and cheerful images.

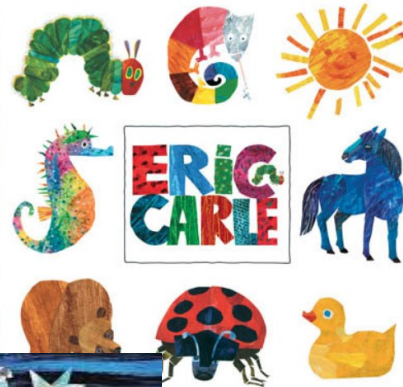

The American author and illustrator Eric Carle was known for his picture books for young children. His illustrations are famous for their brilliant colours and simple designs. He illustrated more than 70 books, many of which he also wrote. One of his best-known books is The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

National story telling week is
1st -9th
February

This terms challenge: inspired by Eric Carle.
Create your own piece of art!
You need to return your art work to school by 28th February
Prizes for ks1 and ks2 awarded during celebration assembly.
Winning work will be framed and displayed within school.

ARTIST OF THE TERM

Eric Carle was born on June 25, 1929, in Syracuse, New York. His parents were originally from Germany. They moved back to Germany with Eric when he was 6 years old. Eric began drawing at an early age. As a young man, he went to a respected art school in Stuttgart, Germany.

The American author and illustrator Eric Carle was known for his picture books for young children. His illustrations are famous for their brilliant colours and simple designs. He illustrated more than 70 books, many of which he also wrote. One of his best-known books is The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

Eric Carle's art is distinctive and instantly recognizable. His artwork is created in collage technique, using hand-painted papers, which he cuts and layers to form bright and cheerful images.

National story telling week is
1st - 9th
February

This term's challenge: inspired by Eric Carle.

Create your own piece of art!

You need to return your art work to school by 28th February

Prizes for ks1 and ks2 awarded during celebration assembly.

Winning work will be framed and displayed within school.